

FACULTY POSITIONS
Limited-Term - Lecturer or Assistant Professor
One 2-Year Limited-Term & One 1-Year Limited-Term
School of Occupational Therapy

The Faculty of Health Sciences invites applications for two Limited-Term positions, one for 1-year and one for 2-years. These Limited-Term faculty appointments are Full-Time positions at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor where they will take an active role in both teaching and service. The successful candidate will be required to teach and perform other duties in-person and will be appointed to the School of Occupational Therapy; one of the six Schools in the progressive Faculty of Health Sciences. Salary and rank commensurate with experience and qualifications. The start date of the appointment is July 1, 2024, or as negotiated.

The successful candidates will hold a master's or bachelor's degree from an entry to practice occupational therapy program and be registered or eligible for registration with the College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario (COTO). A post-professional master's or doctoral degree is preferred. The candidates are required to have experience in and demonstrate current competencies in occupation-based practice. Teaching and/or practice experience in fieldwork, mental health, pediatrics, and/or environmental and technological approaches would be assets. Candidates should demonstrate a commitment to and experience contributing in meaningful ways to Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization initiatives. Additional consideration will be granted for an applicant with proficiency related to Canada's Indigenous and/or marginalized populations.

The accredited School of Occupational Therapy is recognized, nationally and internationally, for leadership in occupational therapy and occupational science. The School is committed to the development of occupational therapy as a science-driven, evidenced-informed, and occupation-focused academic discipline with an established masters (MScOT) entry-level professional program. Our curriculum embodies a commitment to experiential learning, relational learning, reflective learning, transformative learning, and occupation-based inquiry. The School has excellent teaching and research facilities as well as clinical and community facilities to support the development of occupational therapy. The School contributes to bachelor courses in Rehabilitation Science and is a major contributor to the MSc and PhD programs in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences. In partnership with the Graduate Program in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, the School of Occupational Therapy is the first Canadian program that provides an opportunity to pursue graduate education in Occupational Science and to obtain combined MScOT/PhD degrees.
